

IC 23-18-2-9

Reservation of name

Sec. 9. (a) A person may reserve the exclusive right to the use of a name, including a fictitious name by a foreign limited liability company whose name is not available, by delivering an application to the secretary of state. The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name to be reserved. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for renewable one hundred twenty (120) day periods.

(b) The owner of a reserved name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the office of the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.
